Welcome to Advanced Nutritional Solutions!

Thank you for choosing Advanced Nutritional Solutions to reclaim your health. We find that our clients choose us after trying so many different avenues of health and wellness with no results. They don't know where else to turn, they just want to feel healthier, happier and more vibrant. In most cases you have either seen our website or have been referred to us by family or friends who have experienced great results. We look forward to meeting you at your first appointment and are committed to helping you revitalize your life.

Please see the information below regarding your initial consultation.

Please bring with you:

- Any medication you wish to have tested (we are not authorized to take you off any medications you are currently taking that is prescribed by your physician)
- Any non-expired nutritional supplements that you are currently taking
- Any pertinent and or current bloodwork or testing you have had done within the last year.

Please see our website: www.whysuffer.net and download the new client forms. Bring each completed form to your first appointment. See also directions to our office.

* Please note: While visiting our office, please be considerate of others with sensitivities and refrain from wearing any perfumes, colognes, lotions, or any overly scented skin and hair products when visiting our office.

Please come up our long driveway to park, and enter at the deck on the back of the house.

We accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express, HSA, Cash and Checks.

Good Health to You,

Lee Rossano, C.N.C
